

Zambia Board on Books for Young People Lusaka & Monze Workshops 2010 Photo highlights

Anne Pellowski and Hellen Kay with Lusaka workshop participants at one of the Lubuto Libraries in Lusaka

Anne Pellowski, with Hellen Kay preparing to begin the Lusaka workshop at the Fountain of Hope premises

Lubuto Libraries President Jane Meyers talking to participants on the importance of promoting child literacy in schools

Anne Pellowski, Hellen Kay and the Monze workshop coordinator with participants from far flanking areas of rural Zambia

Ms. Mulenga Kapwepwe getting impressions from workshop participants during the workshop evaluation exercise

Hellen Kay distributing workshop materials to eager workshop participants in Manze, Southern Province

Gankhanani Moffat Moyo, ZBBY chairperson learning the jinks of children's book production during the Lusaka workshop

Anne presents a certificate of attendance and successful course completion to a Lusaka participant

Anne presents a certificate of attendance and successful course completion to a Monze participant

Recommendations from Participants:

- A follow-up workshop should be conducted by ZBBY, Curriculum Development officers and book publishers to chat the way forward on publishing selected titles to be used in schools.

- ZBBY should start participating in international conferences to gain an international exposure on how other IBBY chapters world-wide are conducting their affairs. ■ ■